

Tyumen State University
Regional Institute for International Cooperation
Russian Language & Culture Summer School
Tyumen, 03 -24 July, 2010

Enter Russia through Siberian Gates! Tyumen is the first Siberian city (1586), multinational and dynamic, a city with old traditions and young people.

Join our unique project for students and staff, interested in studying the Russian language and learning about the country. The course is designed to allow acquisition or fast improvement of the language skills, while being immersed into the authentic Russian culture. The participants will have an opportunity to be involved in a variety of interactive educational projects to experience the Russian cultural diversity and to get an idea of the economy, geography and history of Western Siberia.
