On behalf of the academic community of our university I invite you to join me on a short and dense intellectual itinerary. By the end of this "journey" you will discover a part of our country's culture, which reverberates both traditions and present European achievements, and focuses on the genesis and evolution of the easternmost modern Humboldtian academic institution. Founded in a time of scientific effervescence and emulation of great European ideas, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iași has been a bridge between the secular values of the civilized Western society and the spiritual beliefs shared by the local people. Our university has gradually turned into a forum of free ideas, a unity of education in the spirit of that which is true, good and beautiful, as well as an emblematic landmark of this region. Free from the constraints of the totalitarian system, in the past two decades, our academic community has been rebuilding the formative vocation of characters, with determination in the creative transmission of quality knowledge and respect for the world's miraculous diversity.

Today, with its fifteen faculties, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University offers to all inquisitive young minds a large diversity of academic programs which are aimed to open the way towards their personal fulfillment and social recognition. In a world characterized by rapid and profound changes, where knowledge is the most valuable asset, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University aims to strengthen the flexibility of learning, to create opportunities for the intellectual and professional development of its students, to assist quality research and to contribute to the society's cultural and economic growth. Due to its performances, our university has signed partnerships with more than 200 prestigious academic institutions throughout the world and has actively promoted the development of the European Higher Education Area. Prepared to confidently assume the unforeseen paths of the future, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iași openly awaits both diligent students and professors from all over the world. Consistent with its creed "Fides et Ratio", the University is grateful to you all, who share its joys, and warmly recommends those in expectance to assay its challenges.

Prof. dr. Vasile IȘAN
Rector of Alexandru Ioan Cuza University

Travelling abroad is a relevant part of education; more so if the visit is academic.

The Erasmus Programme provides excellent educational opportunities for all students.

Our university sent and received the first Erasmus (Socrates, by that time) students and teaching staff in 1998. Over these 14 years, more than 4,500 outgoing students and almost 900 incoming students turned Erasmus at Alexandru Ioan Cuza University into an ongoing success story. All the meetings we have with the outgoing students just before their leave and then with the incoming students of that year are rewarding through the refreshing discussions with very good, highly motivated students. Many of our best students become Erasmus students and consequently leave us for one or two semesters. Each of them visits one of our 300 partner institutions. Some of them are enrolled in joint degrees with our partner universities. All outgoing students return not only more advanced in their studies, but also more confident in themselves. Furthermore, they increase, year after year, the trust and willingness to cooperate between our university and our partners.

The Erasmus team and the other student services do their best to make our incoming students feel that Alexandru Ioan Cuza University is their home away from home. The fact that so many incoming students came for one semester and then asked for a second semester here is their touching way of saying that our work reached its goals. Upon their return, they are the most credible ambassadors of our university, of the city of Iasi.

Our university expands the scope of its Erasmus - like exchanges by coordinating 3 Erasmus Mundus projects which join together 35 universities from the EU and seven neighbor countries in Europe and Asia.

Alexandru Ioan Cuza University is ranked 67 in Europe by the number of outgoing Erasmus students. Such a standing is the result of a university-wide work - teaching staff and administrative staff supporting mobile students before, during and after their visit abroad.

Whether we say it at the beginning of your Erasmus visits (that is, you are incoming students) or after its completion - welcome to Alexandru Ioan Cuza University!

Prof. dr. Henri LUCHIAN
Vice - Rector for International Relations

- ✓ Increasing the awareness of the unity and diversity of world languages and cultures (the Centre for European Studies; permanent French, German, Italian, Spanish, Polish, Greek, American and Chinese lectureships offered by teachers from these countries; compulsory courses on EU languages and culture in all our academic curricula);
- ✓ Fortifying the EU membership of Romania (education of translators, courses on European legislation).

Alexandru Ioan Cuza University develops excellent relationships of academic cooperation in Europe, but also outside Europe with universities in the United States of America, China, Japan, Australia, South Korea, Singapore and South America.

Alexandru Ioan Cuza University attaches the greatest importance to developing multiple partnerships, being a member of the Coimbra Group, the Utrecht Network, the Balkan Universities Network, the founding member of the Francophone Universities Network Alexandru Ioan Cuza (RUFAC) and affiliated, among others, to the European Universities Association (EUA), the International Association of the Universities (IAU), L'Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie (AUF). Mutual academic trust, academic strength specific to multiple partnerships, exchange intensification for students, teaching staff and also ideas continue to make out of Alexandru Ioan Cuza University an appreciated academic partner and a favourite destination in higher education.

ANASTASIE FĂTU BOTANICAL GARDEN

Opening hours: 8.00 – 16.00 (in winter); 8.00 – 20.00 (in summer)

The BOTANICAL GARDEN of Iasi belongs to the patrimony of Alexandru Ioan Cuza University. It was set up by the physician and natural scientist Anastasie Fatu in 1856. It was the first botanical garden in Romania where students could do practical work and research. Since 1963 the Botanical Garden is located in the north-west of the city, on the western side of the Copou Hill, and has a surface of 100 hectares. Every year in October, on the occasion of the City of Iasi Festival and of the Dies Academicus of Alexandru Ioan Cuza University, the Botanical Garden organises the “Autumn Flowers” Exhibition: chrysanthemums, ornamental plants, bonsai, useful plants, carnivore plants, and flower arrangements. Its scientific activities are developed by two “satellite” botanical gardens, both also belonging to the patrimony of Alexandru Ioan Cuza University: one in the Carpathian Mountains (at Potoci-Bicaz, District of Neamt) and one at the Black Sea (Agigea, District of Constanta). The Botanical Garden is open for visitors all year long.

PRE-ARRIVAL ADVICE

At least two months before you leave your home university, you should contact the Erasmus Faculty Coordinator for study or placement from Alexandru Ioan Cuza University in order to inform him/her about your coming here. It is with the Faculty Coordinator that you must discuss the details related to the courses you are going to choose and to your study programme in general.

You must also contact the European Programmes Office of Alexandru Ioan Cuza University if you need help with the practical information concerning registration, accommodation, travel to Iasi, Romanian language courses, or any question you may have related to your Erasmus mobility.

MAKE SURE THAT:

- You faxed or mailed to the Erasmus Office of Alexandru Ioan Cuza University the required application forms: Student Application Form; Learning Agreement; Accommodation Form.
You got your Transcript of Records signed and stamped by your home faculty (you will need it for registration at Alexandru Ioan Cuza University).
- You got a letter from the coordinator or from the International Relations Office of your home university, stating your name, your field of study, and your period of study in Iasi.
- You informed the Erasmus Office of Alexandru Ioan Cuza University about the exact day of your arrival in Iasi.
- You know what documents you will be requested when getting back to your home institution.

Do not leave your arrangements until the last minute.
It is very important that you get in touch with the Erasmus Office of Alexandru Ioan Cuza University at least two months before your arrival in Iasi.

ACCOMMODATION

TARGUSOR-COPOU CAMPUS

C1, C2 AND C3 RESIDENCES

HEAD OF CAMPUS ADMINISTRATION: ing. Maricel Matianu

PHONE: 0232.201378

ADDRESS: str. Stoicescu nr.1-4

PUBLIC HOURS: 7.30 – 16.00

TARGUSOR-COPOU CAMPUS is within walking distance from the main University Building, the University Library and “Titu Maiorescu” Students’ Cafeteria.

C1, C2 AND C3 RESIDENCES have been recently renovated. Places are available in triple rooms, fully furnished, including a TV set and a refrigerator. Each room has a private bathroom and access to internet is available. On each floor there is a kitchen equipped with gas-stoves and ovens.

The accommodation fee to be paid is 415 LEI/MONTH (the price available for the academic year 2014-2015) for a place in a triple room.

In order to arrange for your accommodation in this hotel you are kindly asked to address to the ERASMUS OFFICE (erasmus@uaic.ro) by:

- 1 AUGUST for the students coming in the first semester
- 1 DECEMBER for the students coming in the second semester.

HEALTH INSURANCE

It is very important for you to be properly insured during your period of study or placement in Romania. Medical costs can be high, especially if they include a stay in a hospital. Students registered at institutions of higher education are not automatically insured against medical expenses. Therefore you must arrange this yourself.

In case you ever need to access health care services during your period of study or placement in Romania, either of the following alternatives would work:

- the European Health Insurance Card (to be used only in case of emergency) or
- the certificate E106 (normally for residents, it covers more than emergencies).

In case you are already here and totally forgot about your health insurance before leaving, you may go to the Local Health Insurance Department (address: Str. Gheorghe Asachi nr. 18-20, 700483 Iași) and apply for either of the two mentioned-above.

Your place of arrival in Romania will be, most likely, Otopeni Airport near Bucharest. You can take a taxi/bus from the airport to the North Railway Station (Gara de Nord) in Bucharest, from where all the trains to Iasi leave. There are several trains every day from Bucharest to Iasi. The best choice, due to the comfort provided, would be the InterCity (IC) train. The trip takes about 6 hours by the InterCity (IC) and about 7 hours by the Rapid (R) or Accelerate (Acc) trains. For information about the train schedule and ticket prices you can visit <http://www.infofer.ro>.

TIPS:

- Take the bus 783 or the train directly from the airport to the North Railway station in Bucharest.
- If you decide to take a taxi, It is advisable to take a taxi that is registered by any taxi company and not a private one (even if it bears the label "taxi") from the airport to the railway station.
- It is always advisable to buy a 1st class train ticket. Train schedule can suffer small changes every year, so it is better to buy a ticket directly from the railway station and not to make a reservation before arrival.

If you decide to take the plane, you should know there are at least three airline companies that have flights to Iasi: Tarom Air Transport, Carpatair, and Austrian Airlines. Tarom Air Transport has two internal flights per day. The trip from Bucharest to Iasi takes about one hour. Carpatair has one internal flight per day, from Monday to Saturday. International Carpatair flights only come from Italy (cities: Torino, Bologna, Florence, Milano, Rome, Venice, Verona, Ancona) and from Germany (cities: Dusseldorf, Munchen, Stuttgart). You will have one stop and plane change in Timisoara. Austrian Airlines has one flight per day from Vienna to Iasi directly. Here are some flights to/from Iasi: Flights.

TIPS:

- When you reach Bucharest (Otopeni Airport) and you must change planes for Iasi, you must pick up your luggage and do the check-in again. Also, it is advisable to buy your plane ticket from a tourist agency, where you can be advised about the lowest prices and the most convenient flights.

TRAVEL TO IAȘI

A third possibility to reach Iasi is the minibus (maxi-taxi). There are several minibus stations near the North Railway Station (Gara de Nord) in Bucharest. There are at least 4 trips to Iasi organised per day. The trip takes about 6 hours.

TIPS:

- If you have a lot of luggage, the trip by minibus is less recommended, especially if there are many passengers.

UPON ARRIVAL

REGISTRATION AT THE FACULTY

Upon arrival, at the beginning of the academic year (in October) or at the beginning of the second semester (in February) you are registered temporarily, for one or two semesters, at the faculty that has an Erasmus bilateral agreement with your home faculty. The following documents are required:

The faculty that registers you must provide you with the same study conditions as for Romanian students: access to libraries, laboratories, reading rooms, Internet rooms. During your study mobility at Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iasi, you have the same rights and obligations as the other students of the university, except the right to receive Romanian government scholarships.

RECOGNITION PROCEDURES

For incoming Erasmus students from partner universities, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University assesses previous qualifications/degrees to decide whether a student is qualified for the courses he/she applied for. When dealing with students from partner institutions, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University usually recognizes one year of studies as equivalent to one year of studies at Alexandru Ioan Cuza University. Please note that some courses may require that students have taken certain courses in their previous studies, in order to gain admission.

For outgoing Erasmus students, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University works with the student and the partner institution before the start of the exchange programme to agree on what courses the student should do. If the student completes and passes the courses agreed upon, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University formally recognizes the courses according to the Learning Agreement, with changes, if applicable. Here are the Senate Board decisions regarding the ECTS Recognition and the Grade Recognition.

PART 3

OUR City – IAȘI

"...Forever the traveler and the wanderer, I always found Iași to be a restful place to stop by (...). I remember its cheerfulness as being entirely intellectual, presided over by the icon of my literary friends, gathered in debates and readings (...). A day spent in Iași was for me a discreet and finely nuanced celebration. In Iași I felt closer than elsewhere to the ideal place where everyone would like to spend their life. There was, in this royal city, enveloped in the melancholy of unbearably grand memories, more wit and more worship of all things intellectual than in any other Romanian centre..."

CLIMATE

The Romanian climate is generally characterized by hot summers and cold winters. In winter the average temperature is usually of -5°C to -10°C , but it can sometimes go down to -20°C , rarely lower. Cold days may even start from November, so if you come as an Erasmus student in the first semester, be sure to bring along a warm coat and at least one very warm sweater. In summer, days are fairly hot (around $+30^{\circ}\text{C}$), but temperatures can easily reach $+35^{\circ}\text{C}$. In the spring and autumn months, temperature varies between 5°C - 20°C and the weather can be very rainy. If you come as an Erasmus student in the 2nd semester, you may need to bring along some winter clothes (winter may finish only in April), a rain coat for the spring days, and also summer clothes (in some years the passage from winter to summer is rather abrupt). If possible, you should include these clothing items in your basic wardrobe. Of course, you can also buy them in Iași, where you will find the prices a little bit lower than in your country.

ENTERTAINMENT

Iași is considered to be the first and the oldest cultural capital of modern Romania, playing host to unique monuments of art (The Palace of Culture, The National Theatre, The Philharmonic, The Opera House, The Trei Ierarhi Church). With its more than 200 monuments of architecture and art (both religious and laic), museums, memorial houses, theatres, art galleries, parks, a Botanical Garden, Iași is a museum in itself, ranking among the most attractive tourist sites of Romania. The usual museum visit hours are between 10:00 a.m. – 05:00 p.m., Tuesdays to Sundays. Between September and July, there are 10 shows staged every week (except on Wednesdays) in the two halls of “Vasile Alecsandri” National Theatre; the programme is changed every two weeks. The same schedule applies for the “Moldova” Philharmonic Orchestra of Iași. In the three main cinemas of the city, the latest films are on at each cinema for one week.

All the year long there are a lot of concerts of famous Romanian singers and bands in the main discos of Iași. There is a wide range of restaurants, cafés and pubs, and Internet cafés all over the city.

The Students' Culture House (Casa de Cultură a Studenților) organises conferences, shows, symposia, literary and musical evenings, theatre plays staged by students, meetings with artists and scientists. You also have the possibility to participate in the various programmes organised by the French and German Cultural Centers and by the British Council, which are all very close to the University main building.

THE PALACE OF CULTURE

An architectural symbol of the city of Iași, the Palace of Culture was built between 1906 and 1925 on the ruins of the 15th-century princely court. The very imposing and beautiful building of the Palace is considered to be the most successful Neo-Gothic architectural creation in Romania and, at the same time, one of the last masterpieces of the Romantic style in Europe.

Nowadays the Palace of Culture houses four important museums: the History Museum of Moldavia, the Ethnographic Museum of Moldavia, the Art Museum, and the Science and Technology Museum. The most famous room is the Princes' Hall, floor, where visitors can admire the portraits of the most important Moldavian princes and of the Romanian kings (the Hohenzollern Dynasty), painted in "medallions". Also, a legend was created on the 365 rooms of the Palace corresponding to the number of days in a year.

In the central tower of the Palace of Culture there is a carillon clock, formed of eight bells that play the Romanian Union Song of 1859 (Hora Unirii) every hour. In front of the Palace there is the equestrian statue of Ștefan cel Mare, flanked by two Krupp cannons donated by King Carol I at the inauguration of the statue in 1883. The Palace also houses the "Gheorghe Asachi" Public Library of Iași.

VASILE ALECSANDRI NATIONAL THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE

The National Theatre of Iași was built between 1894-1896 and was inaugurated on December 2nd, 1896. Its rich ornaments, typical of the Baroque style, make it one of the most appreciated architectural Baroque creation in Romania.

The beautiful show hall, with a capacity of 1,000 places, offers a sense of elegance, intimacy and enchantment, and has very good acoustics. During the First World War, the hall housed the Romanian Parliament sessions (1916-1918). It is also here that opera shows are staged.

In 1957 the theatre was renovated and, on the occasion of the celebration of 140 years from the first theatre show in the Romanian language staged in Iași, it was named after Vasile Alecsandri (19th -century playwright).

THE METROPOLITAN CATHEDRAL

Bd. Ștefan cel Mare Și Sfânt nr. 46, Iași

The Metropolitan Cathedral of Iași, the largest in the country, was built between 1833-1839.

The present shape of the building is due to King Carol I of Hohenzollern who, in 1881 (the year when Romania became a kingdom), decided to have the cathedral rebuilt after the fall of its huge cupola. Both inside and outside, the building is richly decorated in the Baroque style.

In 1888, after the fire at the Trei Ierarhi Church, the precious relics of Saint Parascheva were brought into the new cathedral. St. Parascheva is the patron saint of the city of Iași and is celebrated on 14 October every year.

This is one of the greatest religious celebrations in north-eastern Romania.

For one week around the date of 14 October, the number of inhabitants in Iași doubles or even triples, due to the large number of people coming from all over Romania to attend the special religious service and to touch the relics of the Saint. It is a unique event that should not be missed by any visitor to Iași.

TREI IERARHI MONASTERY

Bd. Ștefan cel Mare Și Sfânt nr. 62, Iași

This church owes its fame to the extraordinary stone embroidery that decorates its exterior walls. There are over 30 styles of decorative patterns and they are all unrepeatable.

The occidental architectural styles (Gothic, Renaissance) combine with oriental ones (of Armenian, Georgian, Persian, Arab, and Ottoman inspiration), in a very daring conception, whose result is however a very harmonious creation. The church has the shape and the look of a casket for relics, specially conceived to house the relics of Saint Parascheva (1641).

The church was built between 1633-1642 and restored between 1884-1904. Inside there is also the tomb of Alexandru Ioan Cuza, the first prince of the 1859 Romanian Union.
