Please mention your name as well as the text "taxă de procesare dosar" (file processing fee).

- The eligibility check of the files will be performed by the Department of International Relations; candidates are advised to provide their full contact data (email address, phone, mailing address);
- Each Faculty Admission Board will then assess and accept/reject the applications;
- For the accepted candidates, the Department of International Relations will request the Letter of Acceptance from the Ministry of Education and Scientific Research;
- Upon receiving the Letter of Acceptance, admitted students have to pay the tuition fees in order to get the study visa from the Romanian Embassy in their country; bank details for transferring the tuition fees will be communicated by the admission officer.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

Admission to studies in Romanian is conditioned by providing a Romanian Language Certificate.

- Candidates who can prove that they have attended at least 4 years of study in Romanian do not need such a certificate. If a candidate speaks Romanian but does not hold a Romanian Language Certificate, he/she must obtain it following a language test at the Department of Romanian for Foreign Students.
- If a candidate does not speak Romanian, he/she must attend the courses of the Preparatory Year (2 semesters). During the first semester, international students will study Romanian language levels A1-A2, while in the second semester, they will get acquainted with the vocabulary pertaining to specialized subject areas, according to the candidate's chosen specialization: Economy, Humanities, Law, Medicine, Sciences.

Should candidates wish to study in a foreign language, they can choose from a list of degrees at Bachelor or Master level that are taught in English, French etc. (please refer to the English version of the university website <http://www.uaic.ro/en/studies/academic-programmes-taught-english-french/>).

Passing a linguistic proficiency exam is compulsory for the admission to studies in foreign languages.

- Candidates' language certificates submitted to their application files are assessed by the respective Faculty Admission Board. Students who come from countries with the same official language as the one of their chosen study programme or those who provide an internationally recognized certificate of linguistic proficiency equivalent to CEFR level B2 – Upper-Intermediate (e.g. TOEFL, Cambridge, IELTS, DELF B2) do not need to take the linguistic proficiency exam.
- Candidates who include in their application files a language certificate that is not internationally recognized are admitted on condition that they pass the linguistic proficiency exam before the start of the academic year.
