

Gender and Science

Centre for Gender Equality in Science University Alexandru Ioan Cuza of Iasi 23-24 September 2015

Location: ROMTEL, Building, Conference room 5th floor

Workshop objectives:

To enable participants

1. to familiarize with the main issues characterizing women's presence in academic and scientific research, in the EU.
2. to analyse and discuss the main structural causes of gender inequalities in academic research
3. to identify the main possible strategies to promote structural change for gender equality in academic research
4. to elaborate some individual and group level action to support the undergoing projects of structural change in course at Iasi University.

Workshop programme:

	Day 1 Wednesday 23 September	Day2 Thursday 24 September
8:30-10:00	Gender issues in scientific research in the EU: what is the situation? How does Romania fare? How do we fare in Iasi?	What can be done: Part 1: Structural change for gender equality
10:00-10:30	Coffee/tea break	Coffee/tea break
10:30-12:00	Obstacles to women's career: what does research say and what are the main causes	What can be done: Part 2: Strengthening structural change in Iasi University - Evaluation and closure (12:00-12:15)
12:00-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:00	Analyzing the root causes of gender inequality in science: gender stereotypes
15:00-16:30	Coffee/tea break
16:30-17:00	Analyzing the root causes of gender inequality in science – ctd.

Workshop resource person:

Benedetta Magri Short, ILSGEN Programme, International Training Centre of the ILO, Turin