General information

Duration: 10 months

Commitment: 3-4 days per week

Description:

We are looking for an assistant who teaches English but who is not necessarily a native English speaker. The assistantship consists in English conversation clubs with small groups of students aged from 11 to 14 (everyday situations: shopping, ordering food, in the city, talking about hobbies, countries...), 14h per week. The assistant will prepare his/her lessons on his/her own. Should the assistant have any questions or doubts, he/she can ask his/her tutor for help. The assigned tutor is an English teacher at the school. The assistant will participate in two trips abroad for the purpose of language immersion of students : London with the class of 4è, and an English-speaking country with the 3è. It is possible for the assistant to run a club according to his/her interests (dance, cinema, video, sport...). The assistant can prepare lessons with the biology teacher certified in CLIL or with other teachers of various subjects (History for example).
