

Apply here

Start date

June 2022

Duration

6 months

Languages

Good spoken and written English levels are required (B2 onwards)

Location

Cambridge, England

Home to the world-famous University of Cambridge, dating back to 1209, this historical city has beautiful architecture and majestic college buildings aplenty. With fascinating museums, atmospheric pubs, fine dining, incredible street food and ancient colleges all jostling together in the city centre, as well as the beautiful riverside and open green spaces, you are guaranteed a great experience.

Are you eligible?

Are you a registered student?

Or

Are you eligible to participate in the Erasmus+ programme?

Benefits

See website for details of all ESPA benefits. For all internships over 6 months, additional benefits will be paid. Details available at interview.

Role

This is a fantastic opportunity for an enthusiastic languages student to gain a practical experience within this established translation company. Mentored throughout you will get the chance to use computer assisted training tools (CAT) for translating materials from several different industries including technology, automotive, fashion and lifestyle. The host will also support you with your dissertation or any other assignment you may need to complete your studies, and if you are seeking employment there is every opportunity to gain a permanent position.

Tasks

- Translation, localization, transcreation, subtitling
- Practice with various CAT tools, MT post-editing, transcreation
- Working on various text types and in different fields (computers, engineering, business, fashion, household devices)

Desired Skills

- Degree level education, preferably a degree in Translation, perhaps Modern Languages or Journalism.
- Basic understanding of CAT (Computer assisted translation) tools (Trados, MemoQ, for example)
- Proven interest in translation, blog writing, post-editing
- Excellent language skills in their language of habitual use, plus very good English, and possibly another foreign language
- Enthusiasm for the profession, and commitment to succeed

The Host Company

This host has been at the forefront of the translation and localisation business for nearly 30 years delivering value to many of the biggest companies in the world in IT, Technology, Games, Automotive, Fashion and Lifestyle. The business is founded on an in-house model delivering a wide range of services through 18 offices in 13 countries, with headquarters in Cambridge, UK. A serious but fun place to work, with over 40 nationalities.