Role

This is fantastic opportunity for an individual interested in a Customer Success role, within a well-established and expanding company. If you are interested in eCommerce, organised and process orientated with a high “do to say” ratio, this is the perfect chance for you to be at the forefront of the eCommerce revolution, providing manufacturers with the measurement and analytics needed to help them optimise their sales and profitability on Amazon and other eCommerce sites. Reporting to the UK or USA (so working time patterns may differ), you will be a strong team player with professional drive, who is adaptable and flexible, helping across multiple projects and a strong desire to learn. This is a great chance to develop professionally and personally and an invaluable addition to any CV.

Tasks

- Research websites to qualify product and brand dimensions
- Classification of products and brand groups to deliver category updates
- Manage data entry, review client inputs, and maintain to agreed standards
- Deliver defined outputs in line with client schedules

Desired Skills

- Constant attention to detail and data accuracy
- Excellent communication skills, both verbal and written
- Time management skills and able to deliver to defined timelines
- Multitasker
- MS Office; especially Excel
